PASSAGE OF KERR BILL PANELIZES Those Not Signers of Tobacco Contracts

Since the passage of the Kerr bill by Congress, a penalty will be placed on tobacco growers not signing the crop acreage production control contract.

In Appomattox county there are now some 500 signers.

The opportunity is being given the growers to sign the contract by July 28. After that date no further chance will be extended.

Those who sign now will share in the reduction benefit payments. Those who don't may have a tax as high as 25 per cent placed on their crop.

Disarmament: At the present time much is heard of disarmament. The world in general is weary of the act of disarming.
